To Whom it May Concern:

I, Dr. Fred L Nance Jr., am the author of this complaint. I went on the U.S. Office of Special Counsel website seeking to file a complaint pursuant to an email I received on September 28, 2020, which is attached. I could not access your form because I do not have Adobe Reader for a PDF program. My PDF program Nitro Pro, which your system does not recognize.

I filed 3 Whistleblower complaints pursuant to the National Defense Authorization Act of 2013, which governs Grant #2018-CY-BX-0025. An NDAA reprisal claim must be filed initially with the Office of Inspector General of the agency that awarded the contract or grant about which the employee disclosed wrongdoing. (10 U.S.C. Section 2409(b)(1); 41 U.S.C. Section 4712(b)(1)). As you will see in my attachment I filed a complaint on September 13, 2020 with the OIG. Why would I receive the email attached reporting I need to report my retaliation issues with OSC?

Regarding Federal litigation: A whistleblower may file a lawsuit in Federal District Court against the federal contractor if the whistleblower is denied relief after complaining to the OIG or has not obtained relief within 210 days of filing the complaint with the OIG. (10 U.S.C. Section 2409(c)(2); 41 U.S.C. Section 4712(c)(2)). The whistleblower must file the lawsuit within two years after exhausting the administrative remedies before the OIG and is entitled to a de novo jury trial (10 U.S.C. Section 2409(c)(2); 41 U.S.C. Section 4712(c)(2)). I also have the option to proceed with additional claims under provisions of FCA. My employment was not protected from retaliation by DOJ, BJA, OJP and EMAGES, Inc., which is a requirement of the Whistleblower Act of 2013.

Attached is an email I received from OJP on September 28, 2020; a 21-page document comprised of my 3 Whistleblower Complaints and email responses to other DOJ BJA OJP staff supervising Grant #2018-CY-BX-0025. The 3 Whistleblower complaints are dated: April 17, 2020; August 29, 2020; and September 13, 2020. If our grant manager, Tracey Willis, had done her job and addressed the April 17, 2020 complaint, I would not be in the place I am in today and Grant #2018-CY-BX-0025 would not be canceled on September 30, 2020. The grant period is for 2018-2021.

Please let me know if I have contacted the correct agency. I am being sent in circular motions attempting to address and exhaust my administrative remedies before proceeding to Federal Court. I do not want to go to Federal Court, but I will if I cannot get someone from DOJ BJA OJP to adhere to the Whistleblower Act. I will not be the victim for reporting waste, abuse, and fraud. Thank you.
